

Father's Day Around the World

Written by Bill Tsuda

Good morning, UNAN! Today is Friday, June 14th, 2019.

This Sunday is Father's Day, a holiday that honors and celebrates fathers all around the world. In most countries, including America and Japan, Father's Day is celebrated on the third Sunday of June. But some countries celebrate on different days. In Russia, Father's Day is on February 23rd, and it is known as Men's Day. On this day, Russian women give small gifts to men in their family and at work. In Thailand, Father's Day is on December 5th, which is also the king's birthday. Fathers in Thailand receive yellow flowers, and they often wear yellow clothes on this day. Why? Because in Thailand, yellow is a symbol of masculinity. In America, it is common to buy gifts for your father and have a nice family barbeque. Don't forget to say "Happy Father's Day" to your dad this Sunday!
